

Seven Leagues of Women Voters of the Washington Metropolitan Area invite you to attend a Workshop on

W H E E L S, R A I L S and P E O P L E

The Metropolitan Washington Transportation Problem

Thursday, February 14, 1963

Marriott Key Bridge Motel, Arlington, Virginia

9:30 to 2:00 P.M.

Morning Program--Moderator: Mrs. Charles Naumann, President, Arlington LWV

Mr. C. Darwin Stolzenbach, Administrator, National Capital Transportation
Agency: "Highlights of the NCTA Report and a Look at Its Future"

Panelists

Mr. Harold Gray, National Highway Users Conference
Mr. Frederick Gutheim, President, Washington Center for Metropolitan Studies
Mrs. Anne Wilkins, Vice-chairman, Executive Board, Metropolitan Washington
Council of Governments

Luncheon 12:30 P.M.

Presiding: Mrs. Gordon C. Hull, President, Prince Georges County LWV

Mr. Henry M. Bain, Jr., Metro Consultant:
"A Balanced Look at a Balanced Transportation System."

Audience participation will be important in this joint effort to shed light on a heated subject. Everyone wants a "balanced transportation system", but-- what is one, how do we get it, how will it affect the lives of citizens in different parts of the metropolitan area?

Cost, including luncheon and free parking--$3.50 Morning only $.50
Send luncheon reservations to: Mrs. David Mosso, 1619 Ripon Place, Alexandria, Va.
Te 6-7716, or Mrs. George Robertson, 611 Crestwood Drive, Alexandria, Va.,
Ki 8-6398. Cancellations accepted until 12:00 Noon Feb. 12.

Enclosed is my check for _____ covering _____ reservations for the League of Women Voters Workshop on Feb. 14, 1963, at the Marriott Key Bridge Motel.

Name _____ Address _____